

Park Place

GRAPHICS COURTESY LARKIN AQUATICS

The Dream Designer

TREADWELL JONES
 Director
 Larkin Aquatics
 Kansas City, Mo.

Jones has been designing aquatics facilities throughout the United States and Europe for 10 years. Recently, he was invited to head Larkin Aquatics. Before joining Larkin, Jones worked as engineering manager at Waveloch Tool and Die and project manager at Counsilman/Hunsaker & Associates.

The Dream Works

FACILITY

- A Indoor waterpark — 50,000 sq. ft.
- B Translucent pneumatic roof material — covering 200-foot-diameter dome
- C Saunas, steam rooms with nearby immersion pool
- D Lush tropical foliage with intermingling paths

POOLS

- E Lazy river — 2,500 ft. long
- F Waterfalls of all varieties, shapes and colors

RIDES AND PLAY STRUCTURES

- G Tree-themed play structures
- H Uphill water slides
- I Themed water slides (8)

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Fiberoptic-effect lighting
- Foggers and misters
- Energy-control system that regulates environment
- On-site electric generator, with residual energy used to heat pools and cool facility
- Media beds to reduce chloramines
- Automatic chlorine generators
- Underwater benches
- Water lounge
- Hydrotherapy bench
- Bubble couches
- Bowl slides
- Wave machines
- Flow boarding system